KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. The Lynchburg Mystery.

The Campbell county coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict relative to the death of Miss Lottie Mathews, daughter of Mr. W. Frank Mathews, a promient business man of Lynchburg. Her body was found in Rivermont Park early Wednesday morning. The verdict of the jury was that she came to her death between 4:30 p. m. February 13 and 9 a. m. February 14 by a bullet wound in the head, caused by a weapon in the hands of some person or persons unknown to the jury. The verdict is indorsed by many, but there are others who think there is no doubt that the young lady's death is the result of her own act. Members of the family maintain stoutly that foul play has been done.

While the fact that Miss Mathews bought the revolver which was found at her side is a strong indication of suicide, there are so many other mysterious circumstances surrounding the matter that the jury returned the verdict as stated.

The whole affair is to have a thorough sifting. The county and city, authorities will conduct the investigation together.

H. M. Tutwiler, a traveling man, who was engaged to the young lady, and who was with her on on Main street Tuesday afternoon, is prostrated and confined to his bed.

The evidence yesterday morning developed the fact that Miss Mathews and Mr. Tutwiler expected to be married shortly. Dr. Davis said that he had ascertained that the couple met Tuesday afternoon and had a misunderstanding, after which she returned his ring. This was about 4 o'clock. It is believed she went straight from there and procured the pistol, then went to a drug store, where she purchased a bottle of ink and took the next car to Rivermont Park.

Dr. Davis conducted a partial autopsy Wednesday night, discovering that the bullet had broken the skull where it was thought there were evidences of a blow from a blunt instrument. Dr. Davis found the bullet had entered the right temple and had ranged forward toward the forehead, thus striking the skull and giving the appearance of a blow.

It was brought out in the evidence that Miss Mathews must have reached Rivermont Park about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. She went out on the car which left Eighth and Main streets at 4:33 o'clock. The men in charge of the car did not notice her, but a lady who lives in Rivermont and who went almost to the park on the car, remembered having seen as she left she car, Miss Mathews there and alone. Conductor Coffee recalled the trip on which he took the Rivermont lady to her home, but declared he could not recall whether a young lady left the car at the park on that trip or not.

Believes Catholics Should Fight.

"When it shall become necessary for the Catholics of France to resist the intrusions of the French government upon their sanctuaries, even to civil war, they will be sustained by the Catholics, priests and laity of the entire world."

Father Thomas Ewing Sherman, president of the Catholic Trust Society and son of General Sherman, made this assertion in Philadelphia a day or two ago in an interview regarding the clash between church and state in France. Father Sherman has visited many cities and discussed the situation with many of the deepest thinkers of the Catholic faith. It was soon after a conference with Archbishop Ryan in Philadelphia that Father Sherman expressed his views on the French situation.

"Leading Catholics of the United States and other great countries feel that the time has come when the Catholics of France must resist the French government, unless they wish to bear the stigma of poltroons and cowards," he said. He continued: The action of the government agents in attempting to break into the tabernacles is the frenzied performance of infidels and atheists who are aiming to destroy Christianity. It is a persecution of the meanest and lowest type, worse than any inflicted by the pagans of Rome. It is the extremity of tyranny and sacrilege to break open these tabernacles, where, Catholics believe, the body of God is contained. It is equivalent to the action of the Jews in crucifying Christ. In breaking the Concordat the French republic evidently claims to be owner of the churches in some sense of the word. This contention the Catholic Church can never admit. Therefore, she cannot admit the right of the government to treat the churches and the sacred institutions within as if they were its property. The question of the ownership of church property in France is admitted by canonists to be involved in some obscurity. I am fully persuaded that any degree of resistance necessary to save the tabernacles from violence is justifiable, even if the defenders are obliged to have recourse to extreme violence, or a civil war. Believing that Christ is truly present in His holy sacrament, we Catholics are the guardians of the body of our Lord. It would be betraying a most sacred trust not to be willing to defend that holy Presence, even at the risk of life. Of course, the high authorities of the Church may not judge such a course prudent in the face of a real persecution. We do not know how far the French government is prepared to go in enforcing a law which violates the most sacred convictions of the French people. In case they send troops into the churches, the blessed sacrament will in all probability be moved to more secret and private places, and there worshipped as in the days of the catacombs. The mere thought of this, however, fills American Catholics with dismay. They cannot understand how a republic can forbid freedom of conscience and the freedom of a public worship which necessarily goes with such freedom of conscience in a country where the Catholic religion has been established time out of mind."

Death From Starvation.

Miss Maria Corsa, 56 years old, whose fortune is estimated at from $600,000 to $1,000,000 is dead in her home in New York. Death was caused by starvation and exposure, due to her life of seclusion and false economy. She lived entirely alone in one room of the Corsa residence, denying herself even the necessaries of life and refusing the warmth of a fire, which might have been built with coal which had been in the cellar for years. Miss Corsa, or "Aunt Maria," as the children in the neighborhood called her, died Monday night after 36 hours of medical treatment. On Sunday morning neighbors found Miss Corsa on the floor of the kitchen. She became unconscious, remaining thus until she died. The woman was born in Port Morris. Her parents were both of old Knickerbocker families and her father, James Isaac Corsa, at the time of his death, five years ago, left to Miss Corsa an estate valued at about $700,000 in real estate, mortgages and bonds.

Bill to Aid McCue Children.

One more effort will be made to help the children of J. Samuel McCue evade the harsh provisions of the law which require the estate of the late Charlottesville Mayor to pay for his trial and execution. After McCue was hanged the costs, about $3,000, were assessed against his estate. An appeal was made to Governor Montague to remit these costs, and the point was raised that a compliance with the provisions of the statutes virtually meant that the McCue children would actually have to pay for the hanging of their father. The Governor, after consultation with Attorney-General Anderson, decided that he had no constitutional right to act in the matter. Delegate Byrd will seek to get at the case through an act of the Legislature, and today he will introduce a bill which asks the General Assembly to remit the costs. Delegate Byrd thinks the General Assembly should be merciful in the matter, and he will fight hard for the passage of his bill.

No false pretence has marked the career of Ely's Cream Balm. No idle promises of rewards for cases it will not cure. Being entirely harmless, it is not responsible like the catarrh snuffs and powders, for minds shattered by cocaine. The great positive virtue of Ely's Cream Balm is that it speedily and completely cures nasal catarrh and hay fever. Back of this statement is the testimony of thousands and a reputation of many years' success. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros, 56 Warren street, New York.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 16, 1906.

AMONG the few good items of news, or atoms of good news, which come from Richmond is that the legislature has determined to consider no bills offered after the 20th inst. There have already been enough bills to paper the State House from turret to foundation, many of them as foolish as they would prove wasteful if enacted into laws. If the General Assembly had confined itself to a session of twenty or thirty days, and devoted that period to a possible correction of the errors of the last session, the people would have been infinitely better off at the close of the present session than they will be. The lawmakers seem to be chiefly engaged in making some bad laws and attempting to amend the constitution (faulty as it may be in spots) before that guide for our government has had a fair trial. The constitution is the inspiration of the brains and formed by the hands of men of acknowledged ability, and, concededly, head and shoulders above the Commonwealth's present lawmakers. Not satisfied with passing or trying to pass bills to double their own pay, some member has introduced a bill increasing the allowance of sergeants of cities and sheriffs of counties one hundred per cent. for boarding prisoners. One can get an idea of the extra cost to the State, cities and counties from the mere citation of the bills presented to the Corporation Court of Alexandria for allowances for board of prisoners in jail for the twelve months ending January 31, 1906. These bills, payable out of the city treasury, amounted to $716.50, and from the State treasury $2,219, a total of $2,935.50. Now if this allowance is doubled, quite a large sum will find its way from the earnings of the people to the pockets of the sergeants and sheriffs. Remarkable, indeed, would be the passage of this bill, when one recalls that the State pays the physicians for attending, and for the medicine prescribed the prisoners in jail. The cities and counties erect and keep in repair jails, furnish water, gas, the stoves on which the meals are cooked, the utensils used on the stove, and the table used, beds, blankets, mattresses, &c., and now they are asked to pay twice as much as formerly for the board of a prisoner. The board may not be as profitable as when many things cost less, but it is presumed to be fair, certainly no one has ever heard the City Sergeant of Alexandria complain. He appears to be satisfied to accept losses with profits. The democratic party last year appealed to the people of Virginia for their further confidence. Governor Swanson in his appeal to his party friends in the primary pledged himself to give to the old State a safe, economical and business administration. He also later, as a candidate before all the people, repeated and emphasized these pledges, and it is hoped and expected that he will closely scrutinize these attempted raids on the money of the people.

FIFTEEN hundred bills have been presented in the legislature since its opening, and they continue to crowd the clerk's desk. The calendars are loaded down and members are pushing hard to get their private pet bills acted on by the committees to the hindrance of public business. An extra session is still being urged by some members for the sake of the per diem or for private schemes, but it is said that the word was passed around yesterday that Governor Swanson is opposed to calling an extra session and that he is loth to put the State to the extra expense immediately after coming into office. In this the Governor is dead right and it is hoped he may hold to his present attitude on this subject. Should the legislature remain in session over the regular 60-day term they would have to pay their own expenses and of course this is not to their liking. An extra session could not extend over 30 days, and every bill would have to be re-introduced and treated as a new bill. Much time would be consumed and little of the 30 days left for decisive work. Many of the members, may it be said to their credit, are against an extra session.

COUNT BONI DE CASTELLANE wants the public to believe that his demands upon his wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, are modest. All he seeks, after divorce, is a small allowance, plus enough money to settle his enormous debts. According to the count's friends he has made the following announcement to his wife's lawyers:

I declare to you, and I swear to the exactness of my declaration, that I not only do not demand, but that I will not accept any sum beyond that small amount which constituted my income before my marriage.

The Castellane marriage contract gives the countess her separate income, not subject to claims for the debts of her husband. But she does not appear disposed to exact the strict letter of the contract, and as this is her own business no one else has a right to interfere.

From Washington.

Washington, Feb. 15.

Miss Alice Roosevelt spent most of the day with her girl chums in superintending the decoration of the flower-embowered bridal altar and inspecting the presents which continued to arrive by express and messenger. That the bride takes more than a casual interest in the way the decorations are arranged was proven by the fact that she vetoed the first plan proposed by the florist for the placing of the ferns and palms about the altar. "Do you think I want to be married in a jungle?" she exclaimed. "For gooodness sake put a few of those forest trees behind where we are to stand instead of in front of us. So the ferns and palms were transferred to the rear of the platform. Society is anxious to know where Mr. and Mrs. Longworth are going to spend their honeymoon and how they will make their escape from the White House. One of the latest alleged "inside tips" is to the effect that they will go first to "Plain Dealing," in Albemarle county, Virginia; thence to Roswell, Georgia, the old home of Mrs. Roosevelt, and then to Florida to remain until about the 1st of March. The duration of the honeymoon may be guessed from the fact that Mr. Longsworth has arranged for a "pair" in the House until March 4. The manner of the bridal party's flight from the White House has not yet been settled, but those who know Longworth say that he will in all probability adopt the simplest method of going out of the front door and driving to the railroad station by way of broad Pennsylvania avenue. There will be rice enough on the streets to feed half of Washington, if he carries out this programme, but rice is harmless when hurled at a carriage and there is nothing very deadly in a volley of old shoes. The police arrangements for the wedding were perfected today. Major Sylvester will detail a squad of mounted men to regulate the carriages and foot officers to guard the gates, so that none may be admitted who do not have the necessary tickets. The White House grounds will be closed to the public at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Harry Evans was arrested today on a charge of murdering Morris Halloran, an inmate of the Soldier's Home, who died February 12, as the result, it is alleged, of an assault made upon him February 1 at Twelfth street and Ohio avenue northwest. Charles O'Donnell was arrested as an accessory. Evans confesses to having robbed Halloran and of assaulting him. O'Donnell acknowledges he helped rob Halloran but denies he took a hand in the assault.

President Roosevelt has offered the position of governor of Alaska to Lieut. D. H. Jarvis, formerly of the revenue cutter service, and is now awaiting a reply from him. Lieut. Jarvis is now located in Seattle and as general manager for a large packing concern is making probably three or four times as much as the governorship pays.

Mr. Longworth last night gave his bachelor dinner at his home on Eighteenth street and President Roosevelt set aside his rule not to dine anywhere in Washington save at the White House. For once the President of the United States had to take a subordinate part at a social event. President Roosevelt toasted the groom. That much is known. [illegible] the public. But he is known to have expressed to those assembled the high regard in which he holds the Ohio statesman and to have mingled sentiment and humor in a manner entirely to the taste of those present. Speaker Cannon of the House of Representatives was another guest of honor, and he also was called upon for a few impromptu remarks.

The grand jury today returned an indictment against Thomas E. Waggaman, the local real estate capitalist, who went into bankruptcy some time ago, charging him with appropriating to his own use $5,200 of the funds of the French estate, of which he was trustee.

Warden Harris, of the United States jail, said this morning that Beavers would be sent to Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary at 5.30 this evening just as anybody else. No favorism will be shown him. Since Beavers' incarceration at the District jail he has been a model prisoner, accepting his lot as the hand of fate.

Neither branch of Congress was in session today, having adjourned yesterday till Monday.

The House interstate and foreign commerce committee has agreed to postpone until next Friday voting upon all important amendments to the railroad rate bill. This decision was reached because of a letter received this morning by the chairman from Senator Tillman, declaring his inability to be present at today's meeting, because he is threated with an attack of pneumonia.

The recent military measures for "the protection of American lives and property in China" were inaugurated by Secretary Taft with the full concurrence of the President. Secretary Root was the originator of the suggestion that the Chinese situation justified the increase of American forces in the Orient. President Roosevelt laid the case before the Cabinet some two months ago and the present policy was agreed to by the President and his advisers. Secretary Root stated the case from a diplomatic view point and Secretary Taft expressed his personal views based on his observations during his visit last summer to China. The War Department now has officers in China maintaining constant observation of conditions there.

Advocates of claim measures woke up this morning to find that Mr. Payne, the republican floor leader, their arch-enemy, had stolen a march on them by having the House yesterday adjourned until Monday. Today under the rules is "claims day," when private and war claims are given a hearing.

The Castellane Case

Paris, Feb. 16.—Count Boni De Castellane was served today with a writ in the suit of his wife, Countess Anna, for separation. The serving of the writ marks the end of the time provided by law within which attempts at reconciliation must be made. Under the French method of procedure, a wife, unless a femme commercante, cannot bring a legal action except with her husband's consent. Accordingly Countess Anna had to apply to the court for leave to bring the action against Boni. This was granted on February 1. The judge summoned both parties before him in the customary effort to bring about an agreement. On the failure of this attempt, the countess had twenty days in which to file a writ. This was done today. Present indications point to a quiet issue of the case. Count Boni is not expected to interpose any defense, and it is believed the case can be settled without bringing in a third name. The count's attorneys were anxious for a conference with the countess' lawyers today or tomorrow to discuss terms of the separation, but the latter replied that they were not prepared to grant the request.

"Graft" Among Ministers.

"Graft" has taken possession of the Christian ministry, according to Dr. Charles E. Hewitt, of the University of Chicago Divinity School. In an address to the theological students Wednesday Dr. Hewitt declared that ministers neglect their religious duties and use their positions for financial gain by questionable methods. Charges of illegitimate connections with insurance companies, advertising agencies and other business enterprises were made against the preachers by the university ecclesiast. Money schemes, in which members of the church congregations are oftentimes used as victims, are indulged in by many ministers as a side line to their pulpit work, he told the students. Dr. Hewitt declared the prevalence of "graft" among religious leaders as a chief cause for the deficiency in the ministry of today and a menace to the spread of religion.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Senator Sale introduced two bills yesterday looking to perfecting arrangements for the proper policing of the exposition grounds and to facilitate the military display during the exposition. The troops of the United States, of foreign countries and of the states are thereby permitted to enter and maneuver in Virginia during the exposition without further permit.

Senator Sale also introduced a bill to allow the use of voting machines in any primary or regular election in Norfolk for receiving, recording and counting the votes, providing the secrecy of the voting shall not be impaired.

The special order relating to demurrers to evidence occupied the main part of the Senate session. Senator Sims spoke against the bill and Senator Sears made an exhaustive argument in its favor. It was finally ordered to its engrossment aud third reading.

Senator Harmon presented a lengthy petition to the Senate from the Negro Developement and Exposition Company of the United States, requesting the General Assembly to make an appropriation of $20,000 for the purpose of aiding the association in making a creditable showing for the negro race at the Jamestown Exposition.

The Senate took up and passed the bill "providing that the judgment of a Circuit or Corporation Court, or other court of record, in any action at law requiring plaintiff to remit any part of recovery may be subject to review by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The Senate also passed the bill to establish a state geological and economic survey.

The Senate committee on finance reported favorably the House bill which appropriated $400,000 for the public schools of the State for the primary and grammar grades. The bill already has passed the House. The State already appropriates $200,000 direct to the schools, and this will double the amount. The bill was reported just as it passed the House, and the action of the committee presages the passage of the measure by the Senate. The appropriation will be payable during the coming school year, which will begin September 1.

The Senate bill authorizing the councils of towns, villages, or where there are no councils, the boards of supervisors of any county in which there may be any town or village, to make it unlawful for any railway company to transport excursions or picnic parties to such towns, villages, or other portions of this State where there is no adequate police protection, was favorably reported.

The House bill concerning public-service corporations and requiring the separation of colored and white passengers on cars operated by electricty also received a favorable report.

HOUSE.

The House passed the Churchman bill requiring the Corporation Commission to fix the rate of travel on railroads at two cents a mile until they can determine upon a fixed rate for such transportation. The vote on the bill was 80 to 1. At 2 o'clock the House adjourned to meet again at 4, and disposed of a large number of uncontested bills.

Mr. Byrd introduced a joint resolution demanding an investigation of the circumstances under which A. S. Lanier was dismissed from the service of the Corporation Commission.

The bill creating the office of State oil inspector was favorably reported by the house committee on general laws. The committee gave its unanimous indorsement to the measure.

The "anti-money shark" bill was favorably reported, with one material amendment by the same committee. In its amended form the bill's provisions are made to apply only to loans to the extent of $150.

Delegate Barrett succeeded in obtaining a rehearing for his bill imposing a jail penalty for violations of the liquor laws. The bill was favorably reported, the committee reversing its action of yesterday. The companion bill, providing for the closing of all saloons at night, was adversely reported.

Bills were introduced,

To amend the act requiring the State Corporation Commission to recall assessments made and not to assess building and loan associations or companies with the State franchise tax for the year 1904.

To require registrars to certify true lists of all persons registered in their respective districts or wards between January 1, 1904 and the third Tuesday in May, 1906, to the clerks of the circuit, hustings or corporation courts of their counties, cities or towns to provide for the recordation of such lists by the clerks and fixing compensation therefor.

By Mr. Caton: To amend the act concerning corporations, as to electric railways exercising powers of electric lightning companies.

By Mr. Caton: To amend the act for raising revenue and to provide a special tax for pensions, in so far as it pertains to charter fees of corporations.

By Mr. Caton: To amend section 929 of the code as to county jails.

By Mr. Lion: To provide for the improvement of the breed of horses and their development and to regulate racing of the same in Virginia, and the creation of a commission to have charge of the same. In no way does the proposed measure interfere with the existing racing laws in so far as they regulate book making, gambling on races, etc.

The House made great progress with its calendar at the afternoon session, having passed a large number of bills, most of which were private and local in their nature.

Among them were the following:

To establish and maintain a system of public high schools, and to appropriate money therefor.

To establish an epileptic colony on land of Western State Hospital in Amherst county.

To prevent the shooting of pigeons, fowls or other bird for amusement, and renting of premises for such purposes.

To amend section 1529 of the code of Virginia, in relation to the levy of taxes for school purposes.

The Sale-Holt redistricting bill was favorably reported in committee last night. The St. Clair amendment was stricken out by the committee, which left the measure in practically the same shape in which it was offered by its patrons. Another amendment was tacked on to it, however, taking Surry county from the Second district and placing it in the Fourth, for the purpose of equalizing the population in these districts. There was no opposition to the amendment. The principal change contemplated in the bill is the taking of the five democratic counties from the Ninth district and placing them in the Sixth, which not only leaves the Ninth hopelessly republican, but brings several promising candidates, it is alleged, into Senator Glass's district.

The interest has recently centered in courts of justice committee, which has under consideration the bill offered by Senator Saddler, removing the limitation of $10,000 as the maximum damages in suits resulting in accidents causing death. The argument against the bill was made by William B. McIlwaine on behalf of the railroads and C. V. Meredith spoke in favor of the bill. The committee, by a vote of 5 to 4, decided to report the bill adversely. This amendment is looked upon with favor by many members, and from present appearances will likely be adopted.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Late King Christian.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Feb. 16.—The body of the late King Christian was removed today from Copenhagen to Roskilde on the Island of Zeeland, the ancient capital of Denmark, where most of the Danish monarchs are buried, previous to the interment which will take place on Sunday. The hearse in which the body was conveyed was escorted from the palace chapel by soldiers and sailors. The cortege was headed by hussars and field artillery. The horses which drew the hearse were led by grooms dressed in mourning. The hearse was flanked on either side by twelve officers of the army and navy as pallbearers and behind the funeral car the favorite horse of the deceased monarch was led by two grooms. The mourning coach followed next, King Frederick, the new ruler, riding alone. Then came other coaches containing other royal mourners including King Haakon of Norway, who arrived this morning. All business was suspended and the houses of the city are draped in black. The streets were densely packed with people who appeared in mourning dress.

The coffin was borne on a low open hearse, covered with a national flag and a few flowers. Minute guns boomed and the bells were tolled as the procession moved through the packed streets, crowded with weeping people. The sun shone brightly, in contrast with the open mourning of the people. The crowds were so thick that several persons swooned from the crush, but there were no other accidents, and the best of order was maintained. The casket containing the remains was placed aboard a train for Roskilde at 1:45 o'clock, and the royal mourners started for the scene of burial on the same train.

Execution of Murderers.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Robert Newcombe, a negro triple murderer, was hanged in the county jail here at [illegible] this morning. As soon as he was pronounced dead, the body was removed and the gallows prepared for the immediate execution of John Mueller, condemned to die for killing his wife and two children. At the last moment Judge Barnum appeared and asked Deputy Sheriff Peters in charge of the executions to delay the execution of Mueller. Barnum said he had just been employed in the case and would attempt to prove his client insane. Peters granted a stay until 11:30 to permit the lawyers to make formal application to the courts for a reprieve. Mueller's examination prove futile. He was led to the scaffold at 12:40 p. m. and hanged.

Woman Burned to Death.

Oldbridge, N. J., Feb. 16.—Mrs. John Webber wife of the proprietor of the Middlesex Hotel, here, was burned to death in the hostelry under peculiar circumstances early this morning. The husband was injured trying to save his wife. Webber was awakened at 1:30 o'clock finding his bed on fire, and his wife missing. He rushed into another room and there saw his wife with her clothes ablaze. She look at Webber, he says, but did not utter a sound even when he grabbed her and extinguished the flames. Webber then extinguished the burning bed after which he telephoned for a doctor but when the physician arrived, Mrs. Webber was dead. Webber was seriously burned about the face and hands.

France and Venezuela.

Paris, Feb. 16.—Acting under the instructions of the State Department at Washington, the United States Embassy here has instructed the Paris consulate to take over the archives of the Venezuelan embassy pending the settlement of the quarrel between France and Venezuela, which led to the expulsion of the Venezuelan representative from France after M. Taigny had been refused permission to land in Venezuela, when he boarded a vessel to receive dispatches. Consul General Frank Mason called this afternoon at the offices of the Venezuelan legation, 15 Avenue Victor Hugo, to accomplish the formality of taking over the Venezuelan records.

To Reduce Naval Strength.

Birmingham, Eng., Feb. 16.—The Post today says that an exchange in views is going on between the British and French governments with the idea of further reducing the naval strength of each country in the far East. Such a step is regarded as desirable on the ground of economy. It is considered that the destruction of the Russian fleet by Admiral Togo ended the necessity for maintaining a large force in Chinese waters. Every effort, however, will be made to improve the naval bases in these regions in case of emergency.

Senator Daniel addressed the joint session today and was given a great reception.

The Withers highway commission bill was given its first reading in the House today, having passed the Senate.

Miners' and Operators' Conference.

New York, Feb. 16.—The sub-committee of the miners appointed at the joint meeting of the anthracite miners and operators yesterday afternoon met in session this morning at the Ashland House, to formulate a more complete and specific set of demands than those drawn and approved by the scale committee. The nature of the demands, which have already become known, will in no sense be changed. The sub-committee of the miners will simply amplify them and with each specific demand there will be submitted statistics and other data to support the contention of the demand. The real tug of war will come at the meeting of the committee of fourteen. A seriatim discussion of the demands may prolong the conference over a week, for both sides to the issues do not intend to prejudice public opinion by acting precipitately and hastily.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 16.—The morning session district No. 5, Miners' Union Convention, was animated and productive of prolonged discussion of the troubles between the delegates and President Dolan. A resolution was offered declaring the office of President Dolan vacant. Dolan refused to entertain the resolution and an appeal from his decison was unanimously sustained. A telegram was received from John Mitchell saying he would appoint temporary officers for district No. 5.

Murderous Attack on Priest.

Freeland, Pa., Feb. 16.—No arrests have yet made of the men who attempted to assassinate Father Paducek, a Slavonian priest, at his home here last night. It is now ascertained that the priest was not stabbed with a knife, but by a piece of iron, believed to be a hay hook which tore the flesh and sinews in a horrible manner. The priest is still alive though in a precarious condition, and unable to make a definite statement. Chief of Police Kulp says he has a clue to the perpetrators and expects to make arrests before evening. The church people are badly wrought up, and the authorities fear an attempt at lynching will be made if the would be assassins are captured.

Bank in Hands of Receiver.

The Bank of America in Chicago incorporated last December, with a capital stock of $250,000, last night was placed in the hands of a receiver by Judge Chytraus, of the Superior Court, on complaint of John E. Kavanaugh, a stockholder. The bill asking for the receivership holds former Judge Abner Smith, president, and three other officers of the bank responsible for the alleged insolvency of the institution.

In the few weeks since the opening of the bank, President Smith is charged with having so manipulated securities, mortgages, and notes, and the stock of the bank that he has obtained amounts aggregeting $146,000.

The other three officers who, in connection with President Smith, are held responsible for the alleged insolvency of the bank are G. F. Sorrow, vice president; Jerome V. Pierce, cashier, and F. E. Creelman, a stockholder and director. It is charged against these officials, together with President Smith, that they had absolute control of the bank and its funds; that they have dominated the directorate of the bank; have done as they pleased with the funds of the bank; have voted themselves such salaries as they desired, and have loaned the money of the corporation on such securities as they saw fit.

The operations of President Smith and the other officers mentioned in the bill are said to have been begun before the bank opened for business.

Judge Smith is said then to have borrowed money and placed it in the treasury to deceive the State auditor into believing that the stock had been paid up. President Smith was one of the prime movers in the formation of the bank, having subscribed for $70,000 of the stock.

Information as to the alleged insolvency of the bank is said to have come to the notice of Kavanaugh and other stockholders two days ago In order to prevent, if possible, a run on the bank, it was decided to file the bill for the appointment of a receiver at night.

Notice was served on President Smith, but he did not appear in court or send a representative.

The court entered an order appointing Daniel J. Healy, a stockholder, receiver, in bonds of $150,000. Mr. Healy took charge of the bank.

It is alleged that President Smith borrowed $70,000 from the bank, giving in return notes signed by his wife and his brother-in-law, which are declared to be of little value; that within a few weeks after the bank opened for business Smith secured $62,500 from the bank for himself, giving in return real estate mortgages which are said to be inadequate security.

It is also alleged that President Smith entered into contract with F. E. Creelman, a stockholder, by which the latter was to subscribe to 250 shares of the stock, and was to be permitted to withdraw $150,000 from the bank at any time he wished. This contract, it is stated in the bill, was carried out, and Creelman withdrew, it is said, nearly $200,000, giving in exchange drafts on other corporations in which he is interested. Many of these drafts, it is asserted, were sent back unpaid until Creelman owed the bank $80,000.

President Smith was a member of the Cook county bench for many years, having retired from the court in 1904.

Richmond Annexes Suburbs.

After hearing all the evidence, considering the arguments and viewing the maps of the territory to be made a part of Richmond, Judge C. E. Nicol yesterday afternoon read his order in the annexation case, which has been in progress in the Henrico County Court for the last two weeks. Almost all the proposed territory is ordered taken in except Barton Heights, Chestnut Hill, River View and the Dooley property. This adds to the city about $4,000,000 worth of property and a large area for expansion.

Following are the salient features of Judge Nicol's order:

That the annexation act is constitutional and valid.

All the proposed territory, except Barton Heights, Chestnut Hill, River View and the Dooley property, is annexed to Richmond.

The city is to expend $50,000 in improving the annexed territory within the next three years.

The city is to have police patrol over the annexed territory, and divide it into wards, from which members of the City Council are to be elected.

The city is to collect taxes from the property in the annexed territory after this year.

The city is to assume the indebtedness of Fairmount, which is annexed, and make certain improvements there.

The city shall extend water, gas and sewer facilities to the annexed territory.

The West End is to be improved, $25,000 being expended there, and $25,000 being used in making improvements in the East End.

Fair and just provision has been made for the education of those desiring school facilities and the future management of the schools.

All the children in the annexed territory shall have the right to attend the same schools for a period of three years in order to give the city and county time to rearrange their school systems.

Death of an Old Resident.

Mr. Thos. E. Spinks, an old and well-known citizen, died at his residence, No. 1448 Duke street, last night. The deceased became ill a few days ago and pneumonia soon developed. It was manifest from the first that his condition was critical and notwithstanding medical skill and the services of a trained nurse the disease failed to yield to treatment. Grave symptoms developed and he lingered until about midnight when his death followed. Mr. Spinks was born in Prince William county nearly 76 years ago, but removed to this city in early life. He was a fireman on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad half a century ago, and was subsequently made an engineer. He was employed on both the Orange and Manassas roads up to the time of the breaking out of the civil war and at times during the four years' conflict ran engines for the government over the two roads named. He also superintended the construction of the government telephone line over the roads during the war. He was also for a time engineer on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Senator Henry G. Davis of West Virginia was at one time conductor of a passenger train run by Mr. Spinks. He subsequently returned to the Orange road and remained in the employ of that company for some time while Mr. Samuel Spencer was the superintendent of the road. When the latter accepted a position on the Long Island Railroad the deceased became one of the engineers for that company. Of late years he had been employed in the gun department of the Washington navy yard. He had many friends and acquaintances, among whom he was justly popular.

The Postmastership.

No further information concerning the Alexandria postmastership has been obtained since the statement published in Tuesday's Gazette. A prominent republican of this city in talking today on the subject with a representative of the Gazette said:

"I had confidently expected to see published an emphatic denial from Mr. Eggborn of the very positive statement attributed to him in a Washington paper on Wednesday morning, to the effect that 'he had been a resident of Alexandria for the past nine years and had been a registered voter in the city since the first election after he came here to live.' Until Mr. Eggborn was appointed to a place in the Internal Revenue Service he had never lived in Alexandria a day and here is what the record says as to his appointment:

Now as his interview occurred on February 13th, 1906 and it may be assumed within two hours after the Gazettes of Tuesday appeared, say 7:30 p. m., a calculation of time from 9 a. m., on the day of his appointment to the hour of his interview will disclose the fact that Mr. E. had been in Alexandria 6 years, 10 months, no days, 10 hours, 30 minutes. How much of this time he was a citizen of Culpeper can be easily determined by referring to the records there. If your informant had said that Mr. E. had voted in Alexandria but once for President and Vice-President he would have been very close to the mark."

Rechabites' Fair.

Mysterious Find.

Several residents of this city who were on the opposite side of the river a day or two ago found indications that some clothing had been burned in the marsh between the old and new ferries. A number of buttons were found in the ashes, some were of steel, together with pieces of iron which evidently belonged to a cot. There were indications also that an attempt had been made to hide the residuum, as logs had been pulled over the spot where the fire had been kindled and a pyramid of sand made. Besides, the spot selected was in the marsh and not likely to be visited by any one. One of the recent high tides, however, had spread over this portion of the marsh and exposed the buttons and portions of the cot. The above discovery has given rise to speculations concerning the mysterious murder of George R. Curtin and the disappearance of his clothing, which has for over a month puzzled the authorities, it being possible for the murderers to have conveyed the clothing across the river and burned it.

Basket Ball.

The Congressional Basket Ball League plays its first game in this city tonight. The Alexandria Athletic Club will have as its opponent the Shamrocks of Washington, D. C. The Alexandria team has been registered in the A. A. U., and will now play all the best teams of Washington in the near future. The best part of their games will be played at the armory on Royal street; game starts at 8:30 o'clock tonight. The line up of the Alexandrias will be Duffy, Green, Gray, Tomlin, Dobson, Biggs and Scrivener.

Charges Against Baldwin.

At the next executive session of the State Senate, which will in all likelihood be held in Richmond tonight, request will be made by Mr. Machen, of the Fourteenth district, for a special committee to inquire into a series of sensational charges just filed by certain officials and citizens of Alexandria county against Julian P. Baldwin, superintendent of schools of that county. Suggestions have already been given of the nature of some of the charges against the county superintendent. It has been ascertained, however, that the allegations which are more serious than were at first supposed, have been reduced to writing and filed in due form in the shape of a petition or protest addressed to Mr. Machen who represents the senatorial district in which the trouble exists. The charges not only attack the democracy of the superintendent, but refer also to the uses of certain public moneys, and in addition to these there is filed along with the petition records in a sensational suit in which Baldwin was involved as plaintiff against his own father as defendant.

This measure places the Long bridge under the control of the District Commissioners after February 12, 1906, and appropriates $51,000, to be expended under their direction for its maintenance. Another amendment provides that after June 1, 1906, every vehicle weighing, when loaded, more than two tons, operated over the streets, avenues, alleys, bridges or roadways of the District of Columbia, shall have wheel tires not less than four inches broad.

The robbery occurred shortly before 2 o'clock. By 7 o'clock the officers had captured the thieves and two hours later had recovered the stolen goods.

She was last seen on Monday. Mrs. O'Toole had for some time lived alone. She was 82 years of age and was a native of Ireland. Dr. Purvis, the coroner, was notified and he ascertained that her death was due to natural causes.

Prevention Better Than Cure.

In these days, when most medical men are on the still hunt for miraculous cures, specifics in one or other form, it is easy to lose sight of, at least to fail to give sufficient attention to, the matter of the cause or causes of disease and of the means of prevention as well as of the really scientific because so often simple measures calculated so to help nature as to enable her to successfully perform a cure.

We all remember how the profession ransacked the entire earth for some medicament that should "cure" scurvy. No better illustration of what good old Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes declared to be shameful to the profession could be given than the various "treatments" for scurvy till some thoughtful layman discovered the true cause of the disease to be lack of vegetable food. A rational supply of vegetables or fruit and fruit juices and a diminished ration of salt meat sufficed to render all the armies, navies and camp dwellers of the world "immune."—Health Culture.

Siberian Convicts.

Some interesting phases of Siberian life are described in Samuel Turner's book on that country. Of the exiles he writes: "When I told a Siberian friend that I carried a revolver as a protection against wolves I was promptly informed that I had much more reason to fear the human wolves I might encounter, and this, I found, was a general view of the case. About one-third of the criminal exiles escape all control. Armed with a stick, to which is attached a strong piece of cord or catgut, they will approach the unwary traveler from behind, throw the cord round his neck and quietly strangle him by twisting the stick, to rob him at their leisure of whatever he may possess or secure his passport in order to make their escape from the country."

A Siberian Wonder.

The scientists have for years been perplexed over the wonderful frozen well at Yakutsk, Siberia. As long ago as 1828 it was announced that the ground was frozen to an abnormal depth at the place referred to. In the summer of 1829 a Russian merchant set a gang of men to the task of ascertaining the depth of the frozen stratum. They gave up the job after digging some thirty feet in solidly frozen ground. The Russian Academy of Sciences took the matter in hand and between 1838 and 1844 dug to a depth of 382 feet and then abandoned the shaft because the earth was still frozen as hard as a rock. Natural cold could never penetrate to such a depth, and the phenomenon is still unexplained.

The Horse as a Jumper.

A horse can certainly jump higher than a man. There is at least one authentic case of a hunter clearing a seven foot paling, and a century or so ago a Mr. Bingham leaped his horse over the wall of Hyde park, which was six and one-half feet high on the inside and eight feet on the outside. The horse cleared this obstacle twice in rapid succession, and we are quite certain that no man who has ever lived could do it.—London Answers.

Coffee In Guatemala.

The laborers in the coffee plantations in Guatemala get only 3 to 20 cents (gold) a day. The capitalists get as profit 50 to 60 per cent of the market value. During harvesting time the coffee business gives employment to more than one-half of the population. A single coffee tree, under the most favorable conditions, has been known to yield twenty-five pounds of beans.

Work and Talk.

Generally speaking, it is true of women as of men that those who think most say least. Woman's talkativeness is the result of her sedentary occupation. Tailors, shoemakers and weavers —all men who sit close at their work—have, in common with women, not only hypochondriacal fancies, but also a tendency to great talkativeness.—Richter.

The Word Cigar.

The word cigar occurs in a German dictionary for the first time in 1813 and in the Dictionnaire of the French Academie in 1835. Kant used the word "ziggaro" in 1798. In Spain at the present day the word "cigarro" means a cigarette, for which the Spaniards have the word "pitillos." Their name for a cigar is "un puro."

Therein Is the Difference.

A meddler is a person who fails in his attempt. The meddler who succeeds is no meddler, but a hero.—Duluth Herald.

The New Cough Syrup—the one that acts as a mild cathartic on the bowels—is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It expels all cold from the system, cuts the phlegm out of the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes of the bronchial tubes, and relieves croup, whooping cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

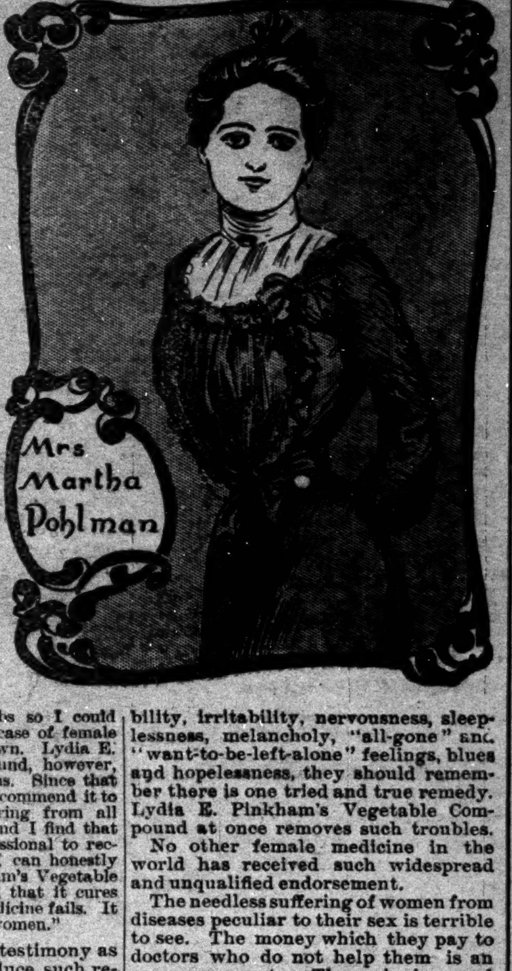
The End of The World of troubles that robbed F. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago Kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. WILCOX, Logan, New York, Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A TRAINED NURSE

After [illegible] Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.



Mrs. Martha Pohlman of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate Nurse from the Blockley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes:

"I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

"Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would bloat after eating, and frequently become nauseated. I had pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is strictly confidential.
